International Grant Event day is a part of Grant Professionals Week. On Wednesday, March 16, 2016 – we will host a worldwide social media event on Blab. Follow this link, and subscribe to the Blab today!

International Grant Professionals Day and Week recognizes and celebrates the impact of grant professionals, administrators, consultants, managers, grant-makers and writers for their beneficial contributions to people, government agencies and nonprofits organizations. The weeklong celebration ends each year with International Grant Professionals Day (#IGPD).

If you haven't heard of Blab, don't worry it is so new it is still in Beta. Blab lets everyone/anyone have their own show. Up to four people can be on the show at once and millions of viewers can ask questions or join in the conversation LIVE. We will record portions of the Blab shows to rebroadcast later. All you need is a Twitter handle/account to participate in the Blab. The Blab works well with the Chrome browser. Download it free here.
